

CORRECTIONAL SUPERVISORS COUNCIL

APPLICATION FOR UNION STEWARDSHIP

This application is intended to be completed by those wishing to be considered as a Union Steward for the Correctional Supervisors Council. Completion of said application is the first step in the selection process however the application on its own does not guarantee your position of Union Steward. Your application will be reviewed by the CSC Executive Board and a determination of Stewardship will be made by that elected panel. Thank you for your interest in serving in such an important role for the Correctional Supervisors bargaining unit. This application can also be found on line at: www.csea-ct.com click on CSC.

Prior to application you must meet the following criteria:

- 1. Permanent status as a Lieutenant for a minimum of one year.*
- 2. It is necessary for a Steward to be informed. For this reason you must attend the Monthly Union Meeting held on the first Tuesday of each month. Missing an entire quarter of meetings (3 in a row) will result in your Stewardship being revoked.*
- 3. You will be required to communicate all information (filed grievances, investigations) with the Chief Steward, Charles Lemelin. It is imperative this information is exchanged to track possible problems.*
