

August 8, 2011

Dear P3-A Member:

Enclosed you will find the P3A unit agreement which contains the language necessary to be consistent with provisions of the 2011 revised SEBAC agreement. The enclosed P3A unit agreement includes language for a contract extension and for general wages and annual increments, longevity and job security provisions as per the 2011 revised SEBAC agreement.

Because the P3A unit agreement incorporates only the 2011 revised SEBAC agreement provisions, we will have only one ballot question when we vote on August 17, 2011.

If you have any questions, please email me at: paige.farnham@ct.gov.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Paige Farnham'. The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Paige Farnham
P3-A President
